

A transport style sign saying: This way to say sorry for your sins.

A crown of thorns will be fixed/painted onto the cross along with a white cloth. There will be explanations as to why these are decorating this sorrowful prayer station.

Behind the cross will be chicken wire onto which chn can tie a small piece of ribbon onto. This will be to signify their sorrow for their sins.

A sign with instructions will be hung from behind the cross. It will tell children exactly how to engage with the station. This includes the ribbon and the pebbles too.

Pebbles will be stacked and scattered at the foot of the cross. Questions and suggestions written on the pebbles will include: Why are you feeling sorrowful? How can you show that you are sorry? What does being sorrowful mean? What have you done at home or at school that you are sorry for? Why are you sorry? Say the act of contrition. How do you feel now that you have reflected on your sins?
