

Body Wise

(Kinaesthetic Intelligence)

Really active all the time and good at different types of sport.

Uses their body to learn new practical skills and is willing to show others.

Physically constructs, manipulates and builds effectively, using their hands.

Great Co-ordination and dexterity.

Uses gross and fine motor skills to express themselves.

Enjoys sport, moving, acting and dancing.

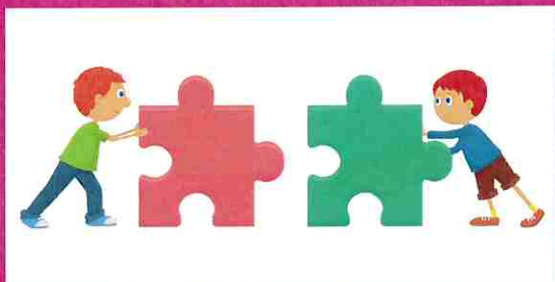

Enjoys watching sports on TV.

Enjoys physical challenges and endurance sports and likes to perform body tricks.

Logic Wise

(Logical intelligence)

Understands, recognises and categorises information, patterns in a logical manner.

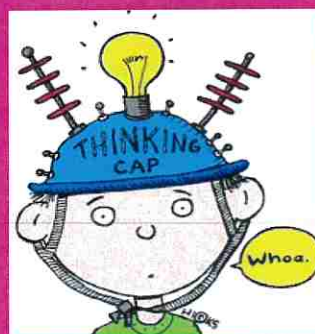

Enjoys challenges.

Spots patterns quickly.

Organises their thoughts clearly and makes connections when learning.

Sees scenarios in different ways.

Asks questions to find out how things work.

Knows and understands the relationship between numbers, actions and symbols.

Uses scientific evidence to support ideas.

Spots mistakes quickly and rectifies them.

Enjoys science, maths, and strategy games and loves to work with computers.

Likes to research online.

Creates own puzzles and riddles

Music Wise

(Musical Intelligence)

Recognises and understands patterns in tone, rhythm and beats.

Makes their own music with anything.

Sensitive to environmental sounds.

Enjoys relaxing to music.

Learns through music and easily remembers songs.

Enjoys singing and learning about songs.

Expresses themselves and can create ideas through music and the playing of instruments.

Enjoys mixing music like a DJ.

Enjoys listening to, playing and making music. Also enjoys singing and clapping along with the music.

Always have favourite songs and enjoys listening to them on repeat.

Nature Wise

(Naturalistic Intelligence)

Keen to learn from, care for, protect and understand the natural environment around them.

Likes to find out about outdoor survival skills.

Explores the relationship humanity has with the natural world.

Recognises different plants and species of animals.

Uses elements and patterns in the natural world to create products.

Loves to read books about nature.

Feels happy and calm in nature.

Enjoys forest school sessions, exploring the outdoors, gardening, camping, going on hikes and caring for the plants and animals around them.

People Wise

(Interpersonal Intelligence)

Has empathy towards others and knows how they are feeling and what to do to help them.

Shows service to all and are peacemakers.

Are able to be active communicators and pro-active social thinkers.

Listens to, shares and understands ideas and talks to others about them.

Works well with others.

They are passionate about life.

Is able to see other people's point of view.

Good at resolving conflicts.

Enjoys making friends, meeting new people, spending time with others as well as taking care of others.

They like spending their time with others.

Self-Wise

(Interpersonal Intelligence)

Sets personal goals and will work independently to achieve them and will stand up for themselves.

Is able to plan and make decisions.

Thinks deeply and drives their own learning and can reflect upon their progress and next steps.

Will question and wonder about ideas.

Does not worry about what others think.

They are self-managers, reflective learners and problem solvers.

Effectively controls their own behaviours.

Knows their own emotions and what they are good at.

Looks after their own wellbeing and knows their limits.

Confident of their own personal opinions.

Enjoys spending time alone, feels good about themselves and loves to plan their thoughts and ideas.

Visual Wise

(Spatial Intelligence)

Is able to visualise objects, patterns, events and ideas in their heads and can imagine how they will look and work.

Is able to create visual aids to remember information.

Is able to create and make patterns.

Recognises 3D shapes.

Is able to read charts and maps and enjoys learning this way.

Enjoys creating, making patterns, art projects and building things and is a creative thinker.

Enjoys creating new games and explaining ideas.

Word Wise

(Verbal Intelligence)

Is able to remember what they have read, written or been told and can effectively explain this to others.

Understands the meaning of words and uses precise vocabulary.

Expresses themselves clearly when reading, writing, speaking or listening.

Enjoys the art of conversation.

Impersonates characters.

Is able to persuade others when talking, discussing or debating.

Enjoys talking about and discussing the meaning of texts.

Enjoys making up stories, writing for fun, playing word games and loves to read.

