

Body Wise

(Kinaesthetic Intelligence)

Really active all the time and good at different types of sport.

uses their body to learn new practical skills and is willing to show others.

Physically constructs, manipulates and builds effectively, using their hands.

Great Co-ordination and dexterity.

uses gross and fine motor skills to express themselves.

Enjoys sport, moving, acting and dancing.

Logic Wise

(Logical intelligence)

Understands, recognises and categorises information, patterns in a logical manner.

Spots mistakes quickly.

Organises their thoughts clearly and makes connections when learning.

Asks questions to find out how things

Knows and understands the relationship between numbers, actions and symbols.

Spots mistakes quickly and rectifies them.

Enjoys science, maths, and strategy games and loves to work with computers.

Music Wise

(Musical Intelligence)

Recognises and understands patterns in tone, rhythm and beats.

Sensitive to environmental sounds.

Learns through music and easily remembers songs.

Expresses themselves and can create ideas through music and the playing of instruments.

Enjoys listening to, playing and making music. Also enjoys singing and clapping along with the music.

Nature Wise

(Naturalistic Intelligence)

Keen to learn from, care for, protect and understand the natural environment around them.

Explores the relationship humanity has with the natural world.

Uses elements and patterns in the natural world to create products.

Enjoys exploring the outdoors, gardening, going on hikes and caring for the plants and animals around them.

People Wise

(Interpersonal Intelligence)

Has empathy towards others and knows how they are feeling and what to do to help them.

Are able to be effective communicators,
leaders and team players.

Shares and understands ideas and talks to others about them.

Works well with others.

Is able to see other people's point of view.

Enjoys making friends, meeting
new people, spending time with others
as well as taking care of others.

Self-Wise

(Interpersonal Intelligence)

Sets personal goals and will work independently to achieve them.

Is able to plan and make decisions.

Thinks deeply and drives their own learning and can reflect upon their progress and next steps.

Will question and wonder about ideas.

Effectively controls their own behaviours.

Knows their own emotions and what they are good at.

Confident of their own personal opinions.

Enjoys spending time alone, feels good about themselves and loves to plan their thoughts and ideas. .

Visual Wise

(Spatial Intelligence)

Is able to visualise objects, patterns, events and ideas in their heads and can imagine how they will look and work.

Is able to create visual aids to remember information.

Is able to create and make patterns.

Is able to read charts and maps.

Enjoys creating, making patterns, art projects and building things.

Word Wise

(Verbal Intelligence)

Is able to remember what they have read, written or been told and can effectively explain this to others.

Understands the meaning of words and uses precise vocabulary.

Expresses themselves clearly when reading, writing, speaking or listening.

Is able to persuade others when talking, discussing or debating.

Enjoys making up stories, writing for fun, playing word games and loves to read.

